

Eric Celarier

alternativeevolution@yahoo.com

Objective: Web designer with five years of experience seeks position developing innovative and results oriented web sites.

Experience: Graphic Designer at Radio Data Group, a company that designs, maintains and manages websites for radio stations (2000-2001)

- Designed look-and-feel and determined functionality of websites
- Created numerous graphics
- Produced and maintained websites

Marketing Specialist at Inacom, a Fortune 500 reseller of information technology (1999)

- Invented original logos for the web and price catalogs
- Wrote, designed, and managed the printing of direct mail pieces
- Created fax blasts and e-mail mass mailings
- Compiled and updated price guides
- Researched and analyzed the Federal IT market for selling strategy
- Coordinated trade shows
- Configured basic computer networks
- Managed the evaluation equipment

Freelance/Temp Artist. I produced original art including: logos, web art, splash pages, and cover pages. Several employers are listed below. I also designed documents including: direct mail, coupons, flyers, brochures, books, newsletters, posters, and table displays. (1997-1998)

- PCI, Plastic Concepts Inc.
- H.R. Communications
- The National Treasury Employees Union
- SUSTAIN

Art Teacher (Prince George's County) I was a public school teacher at Duval High School (1991-1995). I was Chair of that program (1994-1995).

Education: Master of Fine Arts in Drawing, University of Cincinnati (1997)

B.A. in Art, University of Maryland (1993)

B.A. in Art Education, University of Maryland (1991)

Grant Recipient of the "1996 Wolfstien Travel Scholarship," With this award I was able to study woodblock prints in Japan.

Skills: Photoshop, Illustrator, Flash, HTML, ImageReady, QuarkXPress, Microsoft Office, Dreamweaver, Fireworks, Bryce 4, Homesite, Javascript, CSS

I use both PC and Mac formats.